A copy of these cover pages must be included in the public disclosure file and given to the nonimmigrant upon request.

Employers seeking to hire H-1B, H-1B1, and E-3 nonimmigrants in specialty (occupations or H-1B nonimmigrants as fashion models of distinguished merit and ability) must submit either the Form ETA 9035 or the Form ETA 9035E to the designated certifying officer in the Department of Labor (Department or DOL), Employment and Training Administration (ETA) Application Processing Center.

The employer must immediately print and sign the certified application, and maintain the signed original in its files. The employer may then file a copy of the signed, certified Form in support of its petition for an H-1B nonimmigrant with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). For H-1B1 nonimmigrants, the employer must provide the certified Labor Condition Application to the nonimmigrant, who must follow the H-1B1 procedures of USCIS (<http://uscis.gov>) and the Department of State (<http://www.state.gov>.)

Instructions for Section F-1 - Subsection 1

Additional Employer Labor Condition Statements – H-1B Employers Only

Please Note: The determination as to whether an employer is H-1B dependent is a function of the number of H-1B nonimmigrants employed as a proportion of the total number of full-time equivalent employees employed in the U.S. The following table can be used to determine whether the employer is or is not H-1B dependent:

An employer is H-1B dependent if it employs in the U.S.:
Number of Full-Time Equivalent Employees (U.S. and H-1B workers):	Number of H-1B Nonimmigrant Employees:
1 to 25	8 or more

26 to 50	13 or more
51 or more	15% or more of workforce (U.S. and H-1B workers).

See 20 CFR 655.736 for more detailed guidance as to what constitutes an "H-1B dependent employer" or a "willful violator".

All H-1B employers are required to choose one of the following alternatives in order for an application regarding an H-1B nonimmigrant to be processed. Please note the alternative chosen by marking A, B, or C in section F-1 - Subsection 1 of the Labor Condition Application for H-1B nonimmigrants (Form ETA 9035 or Form ETA 9035E).

Alternative A - The employer is not H-1B dependent (as defined above) and has not been found to have committed a willful violation or a misrepresentation of a material fact during the five (5) year period preceding the date of this application (and after October 20, 1998). The employer agrees to maintain the documentation required by 20 CFR 655.736 where applicable.

If an employer chooses Alternative A and is or becomes H-1B dependent or was found, prior to the date of filing, to have committed a willful violation or a misrepresentation, the submitted labor application shall be deemed invalid and may not be used in support of a new petition or extension of a petition for an H-1B nonimmigrant. By choosing Alternative A, the employer also acknowledges that if it uses this application despite its invalidity, it is required to comply with the Additional Employer Labor Condition Statements in Section F-1 - Subsection 2.

Alternative B - The employer is an H-1B dependent employer and/or the employer has been found during the five (5) year period preceding the date of this application (and after October 20, 1998) to have committed a willful violation or a misrepresentation of a material fact.

If Alternative B is chosen, Section F-1- Subsection 2 of Form ETA 9035 or Form ETA 9035E MUST be filled out.

Alternative C - The employer is an H-1B dependent employer and/or the employer has been found during the five (5) year period preceding the submittal date of this application (and after October 20, 1998) to have committed a willful violation or a misrepresentation of a material fact, BUT the employer will use this labor condition application ONLY in support of petitions or extensions of status for exempt H-1B nonimmigrants who will receive wages at a rate equal to at least $60,000 per year, or have attained a master's degree (or equivalent or higher degree) in a specialty related to the employment. The employer also agrees to maintain documentation required by 20 CFR 655.737.

By Choosing Alternative C, the employer acknowledges that if it uses this application in support of a petition or extension of a petition of an H-1B nonimmigrant who is not exempt, it is required to comply with the Additional Employer Labor Condition Statements in Section F-1 - Subsection 2 with respect to all H-1B nonimmigrants supported by this application.

Instruction for Section F-1 - Subsection 2 Additional Employer Labor Condition Statements

All employers (1) that are H-1B dependent (as defined above) and/or (2) that have been found to have committed a willful violation or a misrepresentation of a material fact during the five (5) year period preceding the date of this application (and after October 20, 1998), must read and agree to statements (A) through (C) below and demonstrate that agreement by marking "Yes" in Section F-1- Subsection 2 of Form ETA 9035 or Form ETA 9035E and by submitting and by signing the Form. The employer agrees to develop and maintain documentation supporting labor condition statements (A), (B), and (C) as specified in 20 CFR 655.738 and 655.739 and to make this documentation available to DOL officials upon request. The employer also agrees to make available for public examination a copy of the labor condition application and necessary supporting documentation as specified in 20 CFR 655.760 within one (1) working day after the date on which the application has been filed with DOL. This documentation must be retained for public examination at the place of employment or the employer's principal place of business as identified in Item B. The employer agrees:

- (A) Displacement: The employer will not displace any similarly employed U.S. worker within the period beginning 90 days before and ending 90 days after the date of filing a petition for an H-1B nonimmigrant supported by the application. See 20 CFR 655.738.
- (B) Secondary Displacement: The employer will not place any H-1B nonimmigrant employed pursuant to this application with any other employer or at another employer's worksite UNLESS the employer applicant first makes a bona fide inquiry as to whether the other employer has displaced or intends to displace a similarly employed U.S. worker within the period beginning 90 days before and ending 90 days after the placement, and the employer applicant has no contrary knowledge.

If the other employer displaces a similarly employed U.S. worker during such period, the displacement will constitute a failure to comply with the terms of the labor condition application and the employer applicant may be subject to civil money penalties and debarment. See 20 CFR 655.738.

- (C) Recruitment and Hiring: Prior to filing any petition for an H-1B nonimmigrant pursuant to this application, the employer took or will take good faith steps meeting industry-wide standards to recruit U.S. workers for the job for which the nonimmigrant is sought, offering compensation at least as great as required to be offered to the H-1B nonimmigrant. The employer will (has) offer(ed) the job to any U.S. worker who (has) applied and is equally or better qualified than the H-1B nonimmigrant. See 20 CFR 655.739.

This labor condition statement "C" does not apply to the employment of an H-1B nonimmigrant who is a "priority worker" (defined as a person with extraordinary ability, or outstanding professors or researchers, or certain multi-national executives or managers) within the meaning of Section 203 (b)(1)(A), (B), or (C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. 1153.
